ALFRED HURD'S LATEST.

An Interview with Him in Norridge-week Jail.

He Says a Detective Threatened to Hang Him—Mrs. Brown's Trial.

KNOWLEDGE, Oct. 7.—Alfred Hurd seems to like sensations. At Harmony, last week, he said he saw two men's buildings after he was wanted to see a blaze. At Norridge-week, yesterday, he told a Fairchild reporter that he did not see them, after, was frightened into a confession by the detectives. The Fairchild Journal, today, will print an interview with Young Hurd.

The first question put to him touching the fire was how he set them. His reply was: "I told them (the detectives) that I set Mr. Frost's under the corner of the barn and I told them that Mr. Frost's was the hay."

The following dialogue then took place: Reporter:—You told me that you set the fire under the corner of the barn?

Hurd—Dunno or not?

Reporter:—You told me that you set the fire under the corner of the barn?

THE LA MASCOITE DISASTER.

Testimony of the Captain of the Vessel and Others.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 7.—A special from Cape Girardeau says the coroner is holding an inquest on the bodies of those who lost their lives in the La Mascotte disaster.

The captain and the pilot of the Eagle were taken to the coroner's office, where they did all in their power to rescue the passengers and crew of the burning boat.

The captain testified he could not run his boat near the La Mascotte, for his own vessel would surely have been taken.

Captain Thompson of the La Mascotte says the Eagle could not save the burning boat.

The testimony of the passengers who were rescued coincides with that of the officers of the La Mascotte.

Knights of Labor and the Catholic Clergy.

MONTECAL, Oct. 7.—The constitution of the Knights of Labor has been revised by members of the clergy in this city, and under the auspices of Archbishop Folio, when here, promised the Archbishop to support the order.

The annual convention of the Knights of Labor will be held in Richmond, Va., and have taken the revised constitution with them.

The operators of the participating clubs played a game, the home team making no errors while only two were credited to the visitors.

The visitors, Slattery did not succeed in signing him.

The Portland and Haverhill will play to-day on the home grounds.

Madden will probably pitch for the Portland and Connecting down from a construction train at the city.
